Best Practice No .I BHAGWAN MAHAVIR STATE LEVEL ELOCUTION COMPETITION*Objectives :-

- 1) To develop the oratory skills of students
- 2) To provide a platform to the students to express themselves
- 3) To redefine the philosophy of Bhagwan Mahavir in the modern perspective
- 4) To make students ready for the intellectual meditation and discussion. (The students are provided enough time to prepare their content speeches so that they can present their topic properly through a speeches)

Practice :

Bhagwan Mahavir State Level Elocution Competition is a platform for college and university students in Maharashtra. The competition is held under the two different levels of speeches such as 'Speeches prepared in advance' and 'extempore speeches'. The invitation of participation with all details are sent to colleges and universities in Maharashtra one month in advance through post and e-mail. There are only two participants invited from each academic institution. The students have to complete their speech prepared in advance in 8 minutes and extempore speech in 5 minutes. The judges examine the orators on the parameters like preparation of subject, purity of language, presentation of subject and time management. The competition is organized and completed in one day. This competition is organized under the financial support of Bank of Maharashtra, Kolhapur and Rote Trust, Kolhapur. The topics for the competition are collected from college teachers, keen observers of society, students of Jainism and jain literature and finally they are scrutinized and selected. During the last academic year, 43rd Bhagwan Mahavir State Level Elocution Competition was successfully organized at the college.

Evidence of Success:-

- 1) This competition enhances the oratory skills and stage daring among the students.
- 2) The audience gets a rare opportunity to listen to current thoughts on contemporary, political, social, economical and cultural affairs.
- 3) It develops the reading culture among students.
